

Cashman Field

About Cashman Field

Located in Downtown Las Vegas at 850 Las Vegas Boulevard (LVB) North (at E. Washington Ave), Cashman Field Center was built in 1983 on land donated by James "Big Jim" Cashman, a Las Vegas community leader and "Southern Nevada Pioneer." The stadium, which seats over 9,000, is part of the 50-acre, $26 million Cashman Field Center complex which also includes a 100,000 sq. foot convention center with 16 meeting rooms, and a 1,954 seat theater.

Directions

- ❖ From the Strip, follow LVB northbound through downtown and past the US-95 overpass.
- ❖ From the I-15, go north to US-95 turnoff, then take US-95 south to LVB. Cashman Field is a half-mile past the US-95/93 overpass.
- ❖ From the east side, take I-515 to LVB, then north on LVB to the parking facility.
- ❖ From the west side, take US-95/93 to Las Vegas Blvd., then north on LVB to the parking facility.

Ballpark
Cashman Field Road Map

Cashman Field Street Map